St. Patrick's Day – Truth or Blarney?

 According to legend, Mrs. Murphy's cow knocked over the lantern and caused the Great Chicago Fire. Blarney. It was Mrs. O'Leary's cow, not Mrs. Murphy's cow.

 If you kiss the Blarney Stone, you might spill the beans. Truth. When you kiss the Blarney Stone, you receive the gift of gab.

 St. Patrick was a shepherd before becoming a missionary. Truth. During his captivity as a slave, he was a shepherd in the mountains of Ireland. He escaped and fled to Britain. He later became a bishop.

 A leprechaun is really an Irish teacher. Blarney. He's a shoemaker.

 Ireland was the first to have a St. Patrick's Day parade. Blarney. New York City held its first St. Patrick's Day parade in 1762. Ireland had its first parade in the early 1900s in Dublin.

 Gulliver's Travels author Jonathan Swift is buried inside St. Patrick's Cathedral. Truth. Swift had a Doctor of Divinity degree from Trinity College and was Dean of St. Patrick's Cathedral.

Irish Toast for Friendship

There are good ships,
And there are wood ships,
The ships that sail the sea.
But the best ships, are friendships,
Any may they always be.
